

She's in the sun,
the wind, the rain,
she's in the air you breathe with every breath you take.
She sings a song
of hope and cheer,
there's no more pain,
no more fear.
You'll see her
in the clouds above
hear her whisper
words of love,
you'll be together
before long,
until then
listen for her song.

Lorraine was born on December 20, 1926, to Louis and Elizabeth (nee Wourms) Wirtz in Humboldt, SK. She was raised on the family farm near Pilger, SK. On June 4, 1946, Lorraine married Alois Jaeb in Pilger. After their marriage, they lived and farmed on the Jaeb family farm in the Fulda district. Their union was blessed with six children: Alvera (May 1947), Joseph (April 1948 – died at birth), Glenn (August 1949), Carol (January 1955), Garry (October 1956), and Neil (September 1963). The Jaeb family moved to Humboldt in 1961, and Lorraine worked as a cook in St. Elizabeth's Hospital. In 1969, the family moved to Surrey, BC, where Lorraine was employed as a sawyer in a poultry plant. They moved back to the Humboldt district in 1982 to retire, but Lorraine went back to work as a cook at St. Peter's College. Over the years, Lorraine enjoyed cooking, sewing, and loved to work on crossword puzzles. In 2016, she and Alois moved to Bethany Pioneer Village in Middle Lake, SK. Alois died on December 31, 2016. Lorraine remained at Bethany until 2018, when she became a resident of Quill Plains Centennial Lodge. Lorraine will be lovingly remembered by four children and 12 grandchildren: Alvera's children, Dean Huculak, Lisa Morningstar, Brad Huculak, and Rhonda Huculak; Glenn (Kathy) Jaeb and family, Michael Jaeb, Michelle Hutchinson, and Marnie Rayman; Carol (George) Morneau and Carol's daughters, Nicole Davis and Leanne Sinnett; Garry (Theresa) Jaeb and family, Toni Januario, Joseph Jaeb, and Trevor Jaeb; and Neil Jaeb (Robin Ross); 18 great-grandchildren; two brothers and one sister, Leander Wirtz, Severn Wirtz, and Lavina Jackman.
