

Amazing Grace

*Amazing grace how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now am found;
was blind, but now I see.
Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!
The Lord has promised good to me
His word my hope secures
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.
Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come.
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.
When we've been there
ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we'd first begun.*

Alma was born on June 3, 1934, in the LeRoy/Jansen District, on the farm, to Fred and Pauline (nee Torwalt) Findling. She was the sixth child of a family of eight. She contracted Rheumatic Fever when she was 11, which ended her four years of schooling. In 1950, her mother with family, left the farm and moved to Esk, where Alma met Leonard Krieger. They were married in May, 1952. In 1960, they bought a farm in the Lampard District and in 1990, moved to LeRoy where they bought a house. Alma enjoyed her lovely big home and yard and being able to walk and join activities. In 1994, she had her mitral valve replaced and afterwards, was unable to do the yard work. She moved to the Senior Housing in LeRoy in 1997. Then due to poor health, she moved to Saskatoon in 2000. The marriage was blessed with three children: Carol (Jim) Hantelman, Ronald (Janice) Krieger, and Kenneth Krieger (Pat Thomas); five grandchildren: Jeremy (Tracy) Krieger, Derra (Eric) Froess, Kaylie (Mike) Nemeth, Erin (Brant) Paton, Peggy Hantelman; and nine great-grandchildren: Madison and Casadi Krieger, Kelsie and Dylan Froess, Blair, Emerson and Harper Nemeth, and Lincoln and Charli Paton. Alma passed away peacefully on November 18, 2019, with family by her side. She was predeceased by: her mother, Pauline; her father, Fred; brothers, Walter, Arthur, Julius and Albert; her son, Kenneth; her daughter, Carol; her husband, Leonard; brothers-in-law, Lorne (Margaret) Nerenberg, Alfred (Elsie) Hartman; sisters-in-law, Louella (Julius) Findling, Violet (Albert) Findling, and Helena (Arthur) Findling.
