

We'll Never Say Goodbye

I cannot see you with my eyes
Or hear you with my ears.
But thoughts of you are with me still
And often dry my tears.

You whisper in the rustling leaves
That linger in the fall;
And in the gentle evening breeze,
I'm sure I hear you call.

A part of you remains with me
That none can take away.
It gives me strength to carry on
At dawning of new day.

I think of happy times we shared,
And then I softly sigh,
But this I know - we'll meet again
And never say goodbye.

(Larry Howland)

Chris was born to Clarence and Gloria (nee Talloden) Wittig on October 2, 1976, at Watson, SK. He was delivered by the same nurse who had delivered his Dad. Chris was the last son in a family of four boys. He grew up and took his schooling at Quill Lake, SK. Chris loved and excelled at hockey, fishing, and hunting. A highlight in his life was a safari in Africa with two brothers, two nephews, and his Dad. Chris married the love of his life, Laurie Otsig, on January 22, 2013, in Jamaica. Together, they made several trips to southern climates. Chris worked at welding, farming, long-haul trucking, guiding hunters, and driving the northern ice roads. Recently, he was studying to become a cardiologist technician and passed away while on course at Calgary.

Chris is survived by his wife, Laurie (nee Otsig) Wittig; parents, Clarence and Gloria (nee Talloden) Wittig; two brothers and their families: Gregory (Gail) Wittig and sons Dylan (Sydnee), Aidan, and Griffin; and Randal (Lisa) Wittig and children Zach, Avery, and Alex; father-in-law, Don Otsig (Jan) and son Chris; sister-in-law, Patricia (Stachychyn) Wittig and daughters Alison (Justin) Korte, and Megan (Shane) Haeusler; and by numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. He was predeceased by his brother, Vernon Wittig; paternal grandparents, Eric and Emily Wittig; maternal grandparents, Palmer and Anne Talloden; and recently by his uncle, Don Wittig.
